SOCIOECONOMIC FACTORS COMPONENT: COACHELLA VALLEY AND IMPERIAL VALLEY

Socioeconomic factors are community characteristics that result in increased vulnerability to pollutants. Indicators representing socioeconomic factors that have been shown to heighten a population’s vulnerability to environmental pollutants were selected.

Socioeconomic Factors Indicators:

Regional Socioeconomic Factors
(based on average of percentiles for the four indicators)

Statewide Socioeconomic Factors
(based on average of percentiles for the four indicators)